Is ethnicity a risk factor for post-prostatectomy incontinence and impotence?

This retrospective study will look at men treated in Northern California Kaiser Permanente for prostate cancer with a robotic prostatectomy that have at least one year of follow up data to identify risk factors for incontinence and impotence and to clarify whether ethnicity is also a risk factor. The research finding will help counsel men with prostate cancer to have a better understanding of the risk of long-term incontinence or impotence with surgery.

Drug Cost Containment Changes and Quality of Care for Mentally Ill Dual Enrollees

This study is evaluating the impact of changes in drug cost containment policies associated with the shift from Medicaid to Part D drug coverage in four states (SC, MO, CA, NJ) among fee-for-service (non-managed care) dual enrollees with schizophrenia or bipolar disorder overall and in high risk subgroups (e.g., minorities). My role is to investigate the impact of part D across racial and ethnic subgroups of dual enrollees with severe mental illness.

TRAINEES AND FELLOWS SUPERVISED

Over my career, I have mentored or trained 27 individuals as a primary mentor, including 10 predoctoral and 17 post-doctoral candidates.

Year(s)	Mentee	Affiliation	Description
1999-2000	Alex Federman, MD	Internal Medicine, Mt. Sinai Hospital	Guided Dr. Federman in the use of a dataset I created to explore health services use among Medicare enrollees; Published a manuscript in JAMA
2001-2002	Tova Serkin, BA	Education Department, Jewish Agency, Israel	Supervised Ms. Serkin's undergraduate thesis on health policy and flu pandemics; satisfactorily completed her undergraduate thesis and degree
2002-2004	Sylvia Park, PhD	Senior Researcher, Korea Health Industry Development Institute	Co-supervised Dr. Park in the development of her study to investigate physician prescribing of antibiotics following a change in policy in Korea; she published two peer reviewed articles
2002-2014	Connie Mah Trinacty, PhD	Senior Scientist, Queen's Hospital, Hawai'i	I supervised Dr. Trinacty's dissertation thesis and postdoctoral training. I am currently a co-mentor on her career development award through AHRQ; She has published three first authored manuscripts stemming from this work and has co-authored multiple publications related to this work.
2002-2006	Kara Zivin (Bambauer), PhD	Marcia A. Valenstein, MD Collegiate Professor, Psychiatry, Professor, Health Management and Policy, University of Michigan Medical School	Supervised Dr. Zivin's postdoctoral work at Harvard; she successfully completed her postdoctoral work and has published four first authored manuscripts based on this work.
2003-2008	Marsha Pierre-Jacques, BA		Supervised Ms. Pierre-Jacques through a minority supplement for a grant on which I was the project director; she published her first manuscript.
2003-2004	Julie Donohue, PhD	Professor and Vice Chair for Research, Health Policy and Management, University of Pittsburgh	Supervised Dr. Donohue during a one-year postdoctoral fellowship in pharmaceutical policy. She successfully completed her fellowship and is now a well-established investigator at the University of Pittsburgh.
2005-2010	Katy Backes Kozhimannil, MPH, PhD	Associate Professor, School of Public Health, University of Minnesota	Supervised Dr. Kozhimannil through her dissertation, including serving on her committee. She has since published four studies stemming from her dissertation work, one in JAMA
2005-2006	Yuting Zhang, PhD	Associate Professor of Health Economics, Health Policy and Management Director, Pharmaceutical Economics Research Group, Health Policy and Management	Co-supervised Dr. Zhang through a two-year postdoctoral fellowship; she published two first authored manuscripts based on her fellowship work.
2005-2007	Sara Bleich, PhD	Professor, Public Health Policy, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health,	I served on Dr. Bleich's dissertation committee; she published three first authored manuscripts based on her dissertation one, including on in BMJ .

		Harvard University
2006-2008	Michael Law, PhD	Associate Professor, School of Population and Public Health, UBC	I co-supervised Dr. Law during his PhD program; he published three first authored manuscripts based on his work with our group.
2007-2009	Christine Lu, PhD	Associate Professor, Department of Population Medicine, Harvard University and Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Institute	I co-supervised Dr. Lu during two-year postdoctoral fellowship; Dr. Lu has published three first authored manuscripts based on our work together.
2013-2023	Ousseny Zerbo, PhD	Research Scientist, KP Division of Research	I served as Dr. Zerbo's career mentor, meeting with him once a month to discuss his career trajectory and progress toward his short-term goals (Post Doc through K Award)
2014-2016	Whitney Robinson, PhD	Associate Professor, Gillings School of Public Health, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill	I served as a career co-mentor to Dr. Robinson during her tenure as an NCI Cancer Research Network Scholar.
2014-2016	Mark Lin, MD	Family Practice Physician, Kaiser Permanente	I serve as Dr. Lin's primary mentor for his two-year post-doctoral fellowship in healthcare delivery science.
2014-2016	Somalee Banerjee, MD	Hospitalist, Kaiser Permanente	I served as Dr. Banerji's faculty mentor during her research rotation at Oakland Medical Center.
2014-2015	Tangela Hales, PhD, RN	Doctorate, University of Southern Mississippi	I served on Ms. Hales' dissertation committee.
2014-2017	Neetu Chawla, PhD	Investigator, Veterans Administration	I served as scientific co-mentor to Dr. Chawla, meeting with her regularly to discuss her career goals and to collaborate on research projects and proposals.
2014-2019	Susan Brown, PhD	Research Scientist, KP Division of Research	I served as a co-mentor on Dr. Brown's career development award from NIDDK.
2016-2018	Esme Cullen, MD	Resident, The Permanente Medical Group	I supervised Dr. Cullen in her residency research project.
2017-2019	Cassandra Marshall, PhD	Assistant Professor, Public Health, UC Berkeley	I co-mentored Dr. Marshall during her third year of fellowship.
2017-2020	Jenny Guadamuz, PhD Student	RWJ Health Policy Research Scholar	I serve as a distant career mentor to Ms. Guadamuz who is a PhD student at the University of Illinois Chicago.
2017-2020	Yaminette Diaz-Linhart, PhD Student	RWJ Health Policy Research Scholar	I serve as a distant career mentor to Ms. Diaz-Linhart who is a PhD student at Brandeis University
2019-2020	Jessica Poon, PhD	Delivery Science Fellow, The Permanente Medical Group	I serve as a primary scientific mentor to Dr. Poon who is a new delivery science fellow
2019-2020	Olive Mbah, PhD Student	University of North Carolina, AcademyHealth Diversity Scholar	I serve as a distant career mentor to Ms. Mbah who is a PhD student in the Gillings School of Public Health.
2021-present	Adela Wu, Resident	Stanford University, School of Medicine	I am serving as a mentor to Dr. Wu on her career development award.
2021-2023	Keely Elizabeth Fuller, MS Candidate	Stanford University	I served as a mentor to Ms. Fuller when she was a health policy fellow and continued on as an advisor on her master's thesis
2021-2023	Jeremy Schwartz, MD	Associate Prof, Yale School of Medicine	I served as primary mentor for Dr. Swartz during his 2 years on the IS2 program
