

Oluwakemisola Omolola Adeusi

kemisola@stanford.edu | 205-792-9022 | <http://linkedin.com/in/oluwakemisola-adeusi>

EDUCATION

Stanford University, California

Doctor of Philosophy | German Studies (Division of Literatures, Cultures, and Languages) (In view)

The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa

Master of Arts | German Language and Literature (Department of Modern Languages and Classics) (Jun 2022)

University of Ibadan, Nigeria

Bachelor of Arts | German (Department of European Studies) (Apr 2019)

- CGPA: 6.1/7.0 (First class Honors)

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Researcher and Graduate Assistant, Stanford University

(Sep 2022 – present)

- Conduct research and analyze themes related to migration, integration, and multiculturalism.
- Contribute to discourse about societal borders and the concepts of outsider.
- Explore the dynamics of inter-migrant relationships and perceptions of homeland.
- Cooperate with the language center in instructing German language, developing syllabus, administering tests, and assessing learners.
- Collaborate with other graduate assistants in organizing departmental colloquia and lecture series.

Co-Founder, The KG Language School, Nigeria

(Sep 2016 - May 2022)

- Instructed over 30 students in the German language, providing comprehensive lessons on interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational language skills.
- Advised students on educational and career prospects in Germany, including information on study programs and relevant visa requirements.
- Managed and monitored the school's finances, ensuring proper budgeting, and financial responsibility.
- Supervised and managed the school's employees, overseeing their performance and ensuring a productive and collaborative work environment.
- Developed a thorough business plan and successful social media marketing strategies, leading to the establishment of virtual lessons for a non-residential audience.
- Collaborated with other language schools to host captivating social events, expanding language learning communities and improving participant experiences.

Public Relations Officer, African Students Association, The University of Alabama

(May 2021- May 2022)

- Created interesting and relevant content for the African Students Association's social media, making the group more visible and engaging for online audiences, increasing followership by 36%.
- Collaborated with the executive team to ensure that Public Relations activities supported the main objectives and mission of the African Students Association.
- Led a unified team of volunteers in organizing and running PR campaigns for the association's events.

General Secretary, Deutscher Kreis, University of Ibadan, Nigeria

(May 2018 – Apr 2019)

- Maintained precise records of meetings, decisions, and essential information for the union's activities.
- Engaged with over 30 members to address concerns, gather feedback, and foster a sense of community.
- Assisted in planning and coordinating events of the association.
- Managed correspondences between the association and the university's faculty and administrative board.

Professional and Vocational Services Director, Rotaract Club, University of Ibadan, Nigeria (Sep 2016 – Aug 2017)

- Orchestrated networking events to foster knowledge-sharing among club members and professionals.
- Efficiently managed resources, handling program implementation, budgeting, logistics, and materials coordination.
- Led outreach efforts to address local professional and vocational needs, enhancing the club's impact on community service.
- Recorded and reported on the results and impact of professional and vocational service initiatives.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Graduate Teaching Assistant, The University of Alabama (Jan 2021 - May 2022)

- Cooperated with professors and the language program director in developing lessons, instructing, administering tests, and assessing undergraduate German language students.
- Conducted one-on-one tutoring sessions for undergraduate German students for 2 hours weekly.
- Collaborated with 7 other teaching assistants in planning departmental events and 3 digital and perspective projects.

Lecturer Assistant, University of Ibadan, Nigeria (Sep 2019 - Jul 2020)

- Co-taught the German language to second-year undergraduate students and administered tests and assessments.
- Collaborated with faculty members in planning and preparing for successful annual federal government accreditation.

Volunteer German Language Tutor, Building Nations Initiative, Nigeria (Oct 2017 – Dec 2017)

- Provided free German language tutoring services to 10 adults for 6 weekends, offering instruction in grammar, vocabulary, and conversational skills.
- Actively promoted the importance of language learning within the community, advocating for the benefits of multilingualism and cultural exchange.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

- American Council of Teachers of Foreign Languages (Sep 2021 - Present)
- American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) (Sep 2021 - Present)
- Delta Pi Alpha (German Honor Society) (Apr 2021 - Present)
- Modern Language Association (MLA) (Sep 2021 - Present)

AWARDS, HONORS, AND FELLOWSHIPS

- Enhancing Diversity in Graduate Education Doctoral Fellowship, Stanford University (Sep 2022)
- Melanie Sontheimer German Study Abroad Scholarship, University of Alabama (Apr 2022)
- DAAD Summer Language Scholarship, Münster Germany (Apr 2022)
- Barbara Fischer Scholarship Award, University of Alabama (Apr 2021)
- DAAD Summer Language Scholarship, Aachen Germany (Aug 2017)

SKILLS

- Digital: Microsoft PowerPoint, Microsoft Word, and Microsoft Excel
- Language: English (Fluent), German (Advanced), Spanish (Advanced-low)