Book Title: Erotic Resistance: The Struggle for the Soul of San Francisco (University of California Press, 2024)

Using ethnography, performance and visual analysis, and historiography, I examine archival materials, artworks, and original oral history interviews I conducted with three generations of women who performed in San Francisco’s strip club industry from the 1960s to the 2010s. I frame their performances as well as their artistic and activist practices through the lens of “feminist performance” in an effort to resignify stripper bodies, thus mitigating the stigma attached to them. The book is based on my dissertation titled “Erotic Resistance: Performance, Art, and Activism in San Francisco Strip Clubs, 1960s-2010s.”

Dissertation Committee: Jennifer DeVere Brody (Chair), Diana Looser, Jisha Menon, and Helen Paris

Master’s thesis: “Embodying Spaces: Memory and Resistance in the Aftermath of Argentina’s Dirty War (1976-1983)”

Thesis Committee: Jacqueline Francis, Tina Takemoto, Claudia Bernardi, Tirza Latimer, and Yvonne Yarbro-Bejarano (external adviser, Stanford University)

Research Interests: Feminism and Contemporary Art, Performance Art, Queer Performance, Performance Ethnography, U.S. Latinx Performance, Art and Activism, Latin American Art, Contemplative and Creative Practice, Public Art and Memorials, Abstract Expressionism, Historical Memory, Queer of Color Critique, Historic Red-light Districts, the Sex Industry
