PROFESSIONAL GOALS

1. Support excellence in research with physical and virtual library spaces and collections;
2. Facilitate effective stewardship and curation of information and data generated by the research community at Hopkins Marine Station (HMS);
3. Extend the preservation efforts of HMS archive collections to create actionable research products, thus broadening their utility and impact; and
4. Share the remarkable work of Hopkins researchers with our local community through meaningful engagement with diverse audiences.

CURRENT POSITION

Leland Stanford Junior University, Stanford Libraries

Head Librarian & Bibliographer, Harold A. Miller Library

Dec. 2015 – present

Primary responsibilities include: overall management of the Harold A. Miller Library; collection development (books, journals, data and electronic resources) in marine sciences; plan and direct curation of our unique legacy collections, including data; assist Hopkins residents in finding the information they need, procure documents not available locally or online, and provide instruction on use of physical and virtual library resources and spaces; lead the operation of our makerspace; provide research services, including consultations on scholarly communication and data management, sharing and curation; manage the Miller Library's web pages and Facebook presence.

Leland Stanford Junior University, Stanford Libraries

Head, Science and Engineering Resource Group

Aug. 2022 – present

Began as Acting Head and transitioned to Head. Primary responsibilities include: oversight of the science and engineering branch libraries at Stanford University, including the Branner Earth Sciences Library, Terman Engineering Library, Robin Li & Melissa Ma Science Library, Harold A. Miller Library, and the David Rumsey Map Center. 8 direct reports, 30 total FTE.

EDUCATION

Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon

July 2008

Ph.D., Oceanography, College of Earth, Ocean and Atmospheric Sciences

"The spectral backscattering properties of marine particles", <http://hdl.handle.net/1957/9088>

University of California at Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara, California

Dec. 2000

B.S. with honors, Aquatic Biology, Department of Ecology, Evolution, and Marine Biology, College of Letters and Science

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Software Carpentry Instructor Training, 2-day Workshop, softwarecarpentry.org

Feb. 2018

Data Carpentry, 2-day Workshop, datacarpentry.org [event host and participant]

Nov. 2017

Data Carpentry, 2-day Workshop, datacarpentry.org

June 2015

R Programming, Coursera course, certificate earned with distinction

Dec. 2014

Data Scientist's Toolbox, Coursera course, certificate earned with distinction

Dec. 2014

Curating & Managing Research Data for Re-Use, Inter-university Consortium for

Aug. 2013

Political & Social Research (ICPSR); 5-day workshop

Presenting Data & Information, Edward Tufte; 1-day workshop

July 2013

Communication Program: Strategic Skills for Success,” Association of Research Libraries (ARL) and the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL); 2-day workshop

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Assistant to the Director, Hopkins Marine Station [0.4 FTE]	Dec. 2015 – Aug. 2021
Stanford University – Primary responsibilities included: provide general support for the Friends of Hopkins group; organize and conduct the annual Friends of Hopkins lecture series; organize tours of HMS by graduate student volunteers (approx. 40 per year); contribute to HMS social media; participate in HMS strategic planning.
Assistant Professor, Data Management Specialist, Oregon State University	Sept. 2012 – Nov. 2015
OSU Libraries & Press
Assistant Professor, Oregon State University	June 2013 – Nov. 2015
Graduate School
Research Associate (post-doctoral), Oregon State University	Jan. 2012 – Aug. 2012
College of Earth, Ocean and Atmospheric Sciences, Research adviser: Angelicque (Angel) White
Research Associate (post-doctoral), Oregon State University	July 2008 – Dec. 2011
College of Earth, Ocean and Atmospheric Sciences, Research adviser: Ricardo Letelier
Graduate Research Assistant, Oregon State University	Sept. 2001 – July 2008
