Promotion to Senior Librarian, the highest professional rank for librarians at Stanford Dec. 2023

Primary responsibilities include: overall management of the Harold A. Miller Library; collection development (books, journals, data and other electronic resources) in marine sciences; plan and direct curation of our unique legacy collections, including historical archives and data; assist Hopkins residents in finding the information they need, procure documents not available locally or online, and provide instruction on use of physical and virtual library resources and spaces; oversee operation & maintenance of our makerspace; provide research services, including consultations on scholarly communication and data management, sharing and curation.

Leland Stanford Junior University, Stanford Libraries

Head, Science and Engineering Resource Group Aug. 2022 – present

Began as Acting Head and transitioned to Head. Primary responsibilities include oversight of the science and engineering branch libraries at Stanford University (Branner Earth Sciences Library and Map Center, Terman Engineering Library, Robin Li & Melissa Ma Science Library, Harold A. Miller Library, and the David Rumsey Map Center). 5 direct reports, 29 total FTE.

EDUCATION

Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon

July 2008

Ph.D., Oceanography, College of Earth, Ocean and Atmospheric Sciences

“The spectral backscattering properties of marine particles,” <http://hdl.handle.net/1957/9088>

University of California at Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara, California

Dec. 2000

B.S. with honors, Aquatic Biology, Department of Ecology, Evolution, and Marine Biology, College of Letters and Science

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Stanford Manager Academy, 6 Critical Practices; Leading at the Speed of Trust; Sept. 2024 – Mar. 2025

Inclusive Leadership; Multipliers

Crucial Conversations for Mastering Dialog

Mar./Apr. 2021

Introduction to Global Librarianship, Library Juice Academy

Mar. 2024

Software Carpentry Instructor Training, 2-day Workshop, softwarecarpentry.org

Feb. 2018
